Yavqo Announces First Quarter 2026 Results

Mountain View, Calif. — April 28, 2026

Yavqo Corporation (NYSE: YVQ) today announced financial results for the first quarter ended March 31, 2026. Revenue was $78.4 billion, up 11% compared with the same period last year.

"Our third quarter results reflect the durability of the two engines that now define Yavqo — payments and cloud," said Amara Voss, Chief Executive Officer of Yavqo. "Revenue of $78.4 billion grew 11%, Yavqo Cloud accelerated again, and we returned capital to shareholders while investing in the infrastructure our customers will depend on for the next decade."

"Operating margin expanded to 31.5%, and operating cash flow was $31.3 billion," said Daniel Reyes, Chief Financial Officer. "We are prioritizing disciplined investment in cloud capacity and in the payments network, where returns remain strongest."

Financial highlights

- Revenue of $78.4 billion, up 11% year over year.
- Yavqo Cloud revenue of $23.8 billion, up 17% year over year.
- Operating income of $24.7 billion and operating margin of 31.5%.
- Net income of $22.8 billion and diluted net income per share of $1.97.
- Operating cash flow of $31.3 billion and free cash flow of $23.1 billion.

Yavqo Payments processed $572 billion in total payment volume during the quarter, up 18% year over year, as enterprise adoption of Yavqo's unified ledger and cross-border settlement products continued to expand. The company added 9,400 net new enterprise customers in the quarter, and the percentage of revenue from customers outside the United States reached 39%.

During the quarter Yavqo repurchased $18.0 billion of its Class A common stock and paid $2.6 billion in dividends. Cash, cash equivalents and marketable securities totaled $215.6 billion at March 31, 2026.

For the second quarter quarter of 2026, Yavqo expects revenue of $81.2 billion to $82.0 billion, operating margin of approximately 32%, and capital expenditures of $9 billion to $10 billion. The outlook reflects continued cloud capacity additions and normal seasonality in payments volume.

The Board of Directors declared a quarterly cash dividend of $0.24 per share of Class A and Class B common stock, payable on December 15, 2026 to stockholders of record on December 1, 2026. The company also announced that its annual shareholder meeting will be held on June 4, 2027.

Headcount was 19,540 at quarter end, up 7% year over year, with the majority of additions in cloud engineering and compliance. Yavqo ended the quarter with 74,300 enterprise customers, including 92 of the Fortune 100.

Segment results

The following table presents revenue and operating income by reportable segment for the three months ended March 31, 2026. Segment operating income excludes corporate costs and other unallocated expenses, which are shown separately.

Yavqo Cloud revenue was $23.8 billion, up 17% year over year, driven by demand for artificial intelligence infrastructure, data analytics and the Yavqo Financial Cloud suite. Cloud operating margin was 24.0%, reflecting continued efficiency gains in data center operations that were partly offset by depreciation from new capacity.

Yavqo Payments revenue grew 9% to $45.5 billion, with search and commerce-related advertising improving through the quarter. Yavqo Capital revenue was $7.0 billion, and Other Bets revenue was $2.0 billion.

Revenue by geography

	Revenue	Y/Y
United States	47,824	+10%
EMEA	18,816	+18%
APAC	11,760	+22%

In millions, except percentages. Unaudited.

International revenue grew 20% year over year and represented 39% of total revenue, with the fastest growth in APAC. Marked-to-market foreign exchange effects reduced revenue by approximately $420 million in the quarter; excluding that effect, revenue grew 14%.

Cloud backlog, which represents contracted but unrecognized revenue, was $109.6 billion at quarter end. Approximately 62% of backlog is expected to be recognized within the next twelve months. Payments volume per active merchant grew 11% year over year, and the net revenue retention rate for enterprise customers was 112%.

Capital expenditures were predominantly directed at cloud capacity in the United States and the European Union. The company expects to bring an additional 1.4 gigawatts of data center capacity online over the next four quarters, of which 70% is already contracted.

Outlook

	Q2 2026
Revenue	$81.2B – $82.0B
Operating margin	~32%
Capital expenditures	$9B – $10B
Effective tax rate	16%

The outlook assumes no material change in foreign exchange rates, continued supply of cloud capacity, and no significant new regulatory restrictions in the company's largest markets. Yavqo does not provide a reconciliation of forward-looking non-GAAP measures because certain items cannot be reasonably predicted.

Webcast and conference call

Yavqo will host a webcast and conference call to discuss these results at 4:30 p.m. Eastern Time today. The webcast will be available on the Yavqo Investor Relations website at investors.yavqo.com, and a replay will be archived for twelve months. A transcript of the call will be posted within 48 hours.

Notes to consolidated financial statements

Unaudited

These notes accompany the consolidated financial statements of Yavqo Corporation for the period ended March 31, 2026 and should be read together with the company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2025.

Note 1 — Basis of presentation

The accompanying unaudited consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States for interim financial information. In the opinion of management, all adjustments, consisting only of normal recurring adjustments, considered necessary for a fair presentation have been included. Operating results for the period are not necessarily indicative of the results that may be expected for the full year.

Note 2 — Revenue recognition

Revenue from Yavqo Payments is recognized when the company satisfies its performance obligations, which occurs as impressions are delivered, transactions are processed, or subscription services are provided. Revenue from Yavqo Cloud is recognized ratably over the contract term, commencing when the service is made available to the customer. Contract liabilities of $19.6 billion are recorded within deferred revenue.

Note 3 — Segment information

The company reports four segments: Yavqo Payments, Yavqo Cloud, Yavqo Capital and Other Bets. Segment operating income excludes corporate costs, including certain shared research and development, legal and finance functions, which are not allocated to segments. Total segment operating income was $25.9 billion for the period.

Note 4 — Share repurchases

During the period the company repurchased 83 million shares of Class A common stock for $18.0 billion. Repurchases were funded from operating cash flow and cash on hand. As of March 31, 2026, $23.4 billion remained available under the company's share repurchase authorization.

Non-GAAP reconciliation

The company uses free cash flow, a non-GAAP financial measure, to evaluate the cash generated by operations after capital expenditures. Free cash flow is not a measure calculated in accordance with GAAP and should be considered in addition to, not as a substitute for, net cash provided by operating activities.

	Three months	Nine months
Net cash provided by operating activities	31,346	90,902
Less: purchases of property and equipment	(8,232)	(23,873)
Free cash flow	23,114	67,029

A reconciliation of the effective tax rate and of stock-based compensation to the consolidated statements of income is presented in the tables above. The company does not provide a reconciliation of forward-looking non-GAAP measures because certain items cannot be reasonably predicted without unreasonable effort.
